

With Integrity and Passion

Our Global Code of Conduct

Dear Colleagues,

Our FOCUS articulates who we are, how we work and what we want to achieve. The Core of the Leitbild, the “who we are,” states that we aim to be driven by results, working with integrity and passion. The “how we work” helps us to achieve our Ambition 2025.

Our Code of Conduct demonstrates for each and every one that integrity is “part of our DNA”. We act in a global environment, and are all entrusted to make decisions that impact our reputation and relationships with each other, our customers, our business partners and the public. Our Code of Conduct is the guide for our actions and behavior both within the company and externally. We comply with the laws and are guided by our ethical principles as we conduct business at Boehringer Ingelheim.

We, the Board of Managing Directors are fully committed to compliance with the law and these ethical principles, and ask for your commitment.

The Core of our Leitbild: Who we are

We are independent, family-owned and intend to remain so

- ✓ We are driven by desire to serve mankind by improving human and animal health
- ✓ We feel responsible for our communities and are respectful of our resources
- ✓ We plan in generations and focus on long term performance

We create Value through Innovation for our customers

- ✓ We develop breakthrough therapies and health care solutions in areas of unmet medical need
- ✓ We excel in innovation and deliver the highest quality to drive our competitiveness
- ✓ We believe in partnering for success and the sustainable economic health of the company

We are powered by our people

- ✓ We nurture a diverse, collaborative and open environment, which appeals to the best people
- ✓ We are driven by results, working with integrity and passion
- ✓ We treat each other with respect, trust and empathy, and we grow together

Each of us is accountable

While laws, policies, and procedures may vary by country or region, the ethical principles of Boehringer Ingelheim do not.

All Boehringer Ingelheim employees must comply with this Code and the policies, procedures and laws that apply to our particular geographies and jobs. We must also ensure that third parties performing work on the Company's behalf (such as consultants, contract workers, agencies etc.) understand and adhere to this Code and any applicable policies, procedures and laws.

Each of us has a voice

It might happen that you become aware of an action or behavior which is, or could be perceived to be, not in line with our commitment, such as wrongdoing, misbehavior, doubtful practices, or deviation from this Code. In such situations you are encouraged to “speak up” to one of these resources or use the “Speak Up” portal to report your concern.

Each of us has help

To support Boehringer Ingelheim's commitment to delivering results with Integrity and Passion, we maintain an Ethics and Compliance Program with the Code of Conduct at its foundation.

If you are unsure of what to do in a situation, it's always a good idea to start with your manager, but if you aren't comfortable doing so or this option isn't available to you the Ethics and Compliance Program provides training links to reporting channels and more information:

When in doubt, ask yourself:

No document can cover every situation that you may encounter or every policy that may apply to you and your work. And it is not a substitute for good judgment.

There are times when you may be unsure what to do, or there are some issues that may not be immediately apparent or clear. In these situations, refer to the Ethics and Compliance resources and before making a decision or taking an action ask yourself the following questions.

When in doubt, ask yourself:

- Is it legal?
- Does it comply with this code and company policies?
- Would I feel comfortable if it was made public?
- Does it feel right?

If you truthfully answer „yes“ to all of these questions, you do not need to be in doubt. If you have to answer “no” to any of these questions or if you are not sure, please consult with your manager.

For the full text of all or our policies and procedures, please visit MyBI.
